Industries and Labour Department

Notification

No. 25/21/79-ILD

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (a) of sub-section (1) of Section 17 of the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 (Central Act 19 of 1952) and in partial modification of the Government Notification No. 25/21/79-ILD dated 10-5-1982 published in the Official Gazette, Series II, No. 8 dated 20-5-1982, the Lieutenant Governor of Goa, Daman and Diu hereby exempts the establishment of M/s. Goa Carbon Limited, St. Jose de Areal, Curtorim Salcete-Goa and its registered office at Campal, Panaji-Goa, from the operation of all the provisions of the Employees' Provident Funds Scheme, 1952 subject to the conditions mentioned in the Schedule appended hereto.

SCHEDULE

1. Within three months of the notification the rules for the management of Provident Fund in respect of the establishment shall be amended to provide for the following and the Board constituted accordingly:—

(a) the fund shall vest in a Board of Trustees under a valid instrument adequately safeguarding the interest of the employees and such instrument shall be duly registered under Section 5 of the Indian Trust Act, 1952;

(b) the Board of Trustees shall consist of an equal number of representatives of the employees and the employer and all questions before the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes;

(c) the Board shall be constituted in the following manner that is to say:—

(i) Number of members—(1) The number of Trustees on a Board shall be so fixed as to afford, as far as possible, representation to workers in various branches/departments of the establishment:

Provided that the number of trustees on a Board shall neither be less than six nor more than twelve.

(2) In the case of a common Provident Fund for a group of two or more establishments under the same employer, one Board may be constituted for all such establishment:

Provided that the employees of each establishment shall be entitled to elect a trustee on the Board.

(ii) Employer's representatives—The employer shall nominate his representatives from amongst the officers employed in managerial or administrative capacity in the establishment.

(iii) Election of employees' representatives—The representatives of the employees shall be elected by the members of the Fund in an election to be held for the purpose on any working day:

Provided that wherever there is a Union recognised under the Code of Discipline, such Union shall nominate the employees' representatives:

Provided further that wherever there is no such recognised union, the representative union, if any, existing under any Law regulating the recognition of workers Union shall nominate the employees' representative:

Provided also that wherever there is neither a recognised union nor a representative Union of workers, any Union existing in the establishment and qualified for recognition by the employer, shall nominate the employees' representatives, where there is more than one such Union the procedure laid down in the Industrial Disputes (Central) Rules, 1957 for the election of the workers' representatives on the works Committee shall be followed with such modifications, if any, as may be considered necessary by the Regional/State Provident Fund Commissioner.

(iv) Qualifications of candidates for election —

(1) Any member of the Fund who is not less than 21 years of age may, if nominated as hereinafter provided, be a candidate for election as an employees representative, (2) An outgoing trustee shall be eligible for re-election or re-nomination as the case may be.

(v) Disqualifications of a trustee — A person shall be disqualified for being a trustee of the Board —

(a) if he is declared to be of unsound mind by a competent court; or

(b) if he is an undischarged insolvent; or

(c) if he has been convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude.

(vi) Chairman of the Board — The employer shall nominate one of his representatives on the Board to be the Chairman thereof. In the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall exercise a casting vote.

(vii) Filling of casual vacancies — In the event of a trustee, elected or nominated, ceasing to be a trustee during the tenure of the Board, his successor shall be elected or nominated, as the case may be in the manner hereinbefore provided for election or nomination.

(viii) Reference to Regional Provident Fund Commissioner — If any dispute or doubt arises in respect of constitution of the Board of Trustees, the matter shall be referred to the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner in whose region the Head Office of the establishment is situated and his decision in the matter shall be final and binding.

2. (a) The employer shall maintain accounts of the Fund in such matter and submit such returns to the Regional Commissioner as the Central Provident Fund Commissioner (hereinafter referred to as the Central Commissioner) may from time to time direct.

(b) The employer shall furnish to the Regional Commissioner such accounts relating to the Fund as the Central Commissioner may prescribe from time to time. He shall also furnish an annual statement of account or Pass Book, in such form as may be approved by the Regional Commissioner, to each subscriber who, but for the exemption granted under this notification would have been a member of the Provident Fund establishment under the Employees' Provident Funds Scheme, 1952.

(c) The employer shall transfer the monthly contributions, to the Board of Trustees within fifteen days from the close of the month, failing which he shall pay interest on such contribution to the Board at such rates as may be levied by Government.

(d) The employer shall invest all accumulations in the Fund accruing after the date of exemption granted under this notification in securities of the Central Government. The re-investment or conversion of securities on maturity shall also be in securities of the Central Government. The employer shall formulate a procedure for prompt investment of the Provident Fund moneys and shall have it approved by the Regional Commissioner.

3. The employer shall afford facilities for such inspection of the accounts of the Fund as the Central Commissioner, may from time to time, specify.

4. All expenses involved in the administration of the Fund including the maintenance of accounts, submission of account, and returns, transfer of accumulation and payment of inspection charges shall be borne by the employer.

5. The employer shall display on the notice board of the establishment in English a copy of the rules of the Fund as and when amended and a translation of the salient points thereof in the language of the majority of the employees.

6. The employer shall within 3 months of the date of publication of this notification transfer to the Board the accumulations standing to the credit of the employees who, but for the exemption granted, would have been members of the Statutory Fund.

7. When the Fund is wound up or exemption of the establishments is cancelled, accumulations standing to the credit of the employees who, but for the exemption would have been members of the statutory fund, shall be transferred to that fund as soon as possible, and, in any case, not later than 30 days in the case of securities and not later than ten days in the case of cash in hand or bank, after the date of cancellation of the exemption together with a statement or statements as may be required by the Regional Commissioner.

8. The employer shall accept the Past Provident Fund accumulations of an employee who is already a member of the Statutory Fund or a Provident Fund of an exempted establishment and who subsequently obtains employment in his establishment. Such an employee shall immediately be admitted as a member of the Fund and his accumulations shall be transferred to the Fund within 3 months of his joining the establishment and shall be credited to his account.

9. The rules of the Fund shall provide for nomination in accordance with the provision contained in paragraph 61 of the Employees' Provident Fund Scheme, 1952.

10. The amount of contributions shall be calculated to the nearest quarter of a rupee; that is, 12.5 paise or more shall be counted as the next higher quarter of a rupee and fractions of a rupee less than 12.5 paise shall be ignored. The amounts of inspection charges and damages shall be rounded upto the nearest 5 paise; that is 2.5 paise or more shall be counted as 5 paise and any amount less than 2.5 paise shall be ignored.

11. On all repayable loans granted by the establishment interest shall be charged at the rate of 4 per cent or 1 per cent, above the rate allowed on the balance to the credit of the member whichever is higher.

12. The employer shall pay to the Regional Commissioner inspection charges payable to him failing which damages shall be paid at such rate as will be deemed fit by him from time to time.

13. The establishment shall enhance the rate of provident fund contribution proportionately if the Statutory rate for such class of establishments is enhanced under the first proviso to Section 6 of the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952, so that the benefits under the Scheme of the Establishment may not become less favourable than the benefit under the Statutory Employees' Provident Fund.

14. The employer shall submit audited balance-sheet relating to the Provident Fund of the establishment every year to the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner.

15. No amendment of the rules of the fund excepting those indicated above shall be made without the previous approval of the Regional Commissioner. Where any amendment proposed in the said rules is likely to affect the interest of the employees, the Regional Commissioner shall before giving his approval, give a reasonable opportunity to explain their point of view.

16. Exemption granted by this notification may be withdrawn for breach of any of the aforesaid conditions or for any other sufficient cause which may be considered appropriate.
